HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your right to access and control your protected health information. PHI is information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff and others outside our office who is involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to collect your health care bills, to support the operations of the physician's practice, and any other use required by law.

Treatment

We will use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with third party. For example, your protected health information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose and/or treat you.

Payment

Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require disclosure of your protected health information to the health plan.

Healthcare Operations

We may use and/or disclose your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to the medical school students who see patients at our office. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may use or disclose your protected health information as necessary to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We may disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization: as Required by Law, Public Health issue as required by law, Communicable diseases related activities, Health oversight, Abuse or neglect, Food & Drug Administration (FDA) requirements, Legal proceedings, Law Enforcement, Organ Donation, Research Activities, Criminal Investigation, Military and National Security matters, Worker's Compensation. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and then required by the Secretary of Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

Other permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law.

You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or physician's practice has taken action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated by the authorization.
